Vision, Training, Service,
Our Motto it shall be,
Whether here at home
Or across the sea.
To our Alma Mater
We raise our voices high
For the heights we've gained
At dear S.P.B.I.

THEME

We Dedicate the 1952 SHIELD — to Yvonne Heiden, whose Christ-centered life has touched and influenced each of ours. Her cheerful smile and friendly personality, gracing the office of Christian Service, will ever live in our memories of days at S.P.B.I.

Secretary to Christian Service Director

Upward, onward,
We will go,
Ready to meet the foe.
Jesus, our captain
And He our King.

WORLD MISSIONS NIGHT

The world is full of people who are different from us. They have different colors of skin, different languages, different customs, and different ways of life. But they are all people, and they all need to know the love of God. That is why we have World Missions Night. On this night, we will learn about the people of the world and how we can help them. We will also have a special service where we will pray for the people of the world. This is a special night for everyone, and we hope you will join us. We will have a special service where we will pray for the people of the world. This is a special night for everyone, and we hope you will join us.

After twelve months of intense praying, planning, dreaming, and hard work, World Missions Night of 1952 was produced as one of the great missionary presentations of its kind on the North American continent. J. Merrill Tannehill, World Missions Night Director, receives the congratulations of the pastor, Theodore Bergman.

Ralph Miller and Audrey Reich strike a strictly posed position backstage.

Laurence Hottle exercises great attention in painting a Chinese mustache on the upper lip of Victor Gross.

With suspicion, Stirling Hubbard, a Tibetan, eyes the Chinese altar dragon

SPEAKERS

Myron Bromley: "The hillside of earth, lined with the graves of men like Joe, echo with the muffled tread of marching troops. But where, oh where, are the men who with God's truth will march on?"

Olga Donnell: "Will China draw her last breath in the arms of this dragon, or will the church militant rally to the command of God, their victorious Captain, and speed to her rescue?"

Evangeline Kooy: "We are called, not to lands—but lives. Not to places but people—people needed to complete the church which Christ purchased with His blood."

Meredith Thomas: "Worlds are charging—Heaven beholding—thou hast but an hour to fight—go abroad—strike—let every nerve and sinew—tell on ages—tell for God "

Music at its best is the description of this organization. This musical perfection coupled with a strong emphasis on a spiritual ministry has enabled the Choral Club to be used of God not only to inspire believers but to point many unsaved young people to the Saviour

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is the link between the faculty and student body. It is through this organization that ideas are brought to the attention of the administration. One of the activities of the council was to direct the campus decorations for Homecoming.

Even as the crusaders of old went forth to conquer holy ground and re-establish a broken order in the Holy Land . . . even so go we . . . to conquer mankind and to re-establish a broken order between God and man . . . GOD WILLS IT."

To those who are yet to join in the holy war and to those who are now in the holy war—may we together militantly go forward . . . together raising our voices in that great cry . . . "GOD WILLS IT."

"It is enough,

I come.

Christ's human face, divinely lit,
And God's love shining out from it.
Have conquered.

I come,

It is enough.

Is it enough?

I go!

His hand points to the farthest shore
Where human hands outstretched are begging for

The Christ who conquered-lo,

It is enough,

I go!"

.. and he went forth conquering and to conquer. -Rev. 6:2
